PREFACE / ÖNSÖZ

Not longer than 25 years ago, we became mentally prepared one or two days before a sleeve resection. Currently, however, we are switching to vascular sleeve or carina resections at any time with the support of frozen section. Therefore, it has become applicable in many places today. We hope that this issue will provide guidance to young surgeons who are beginning to perform sleeve resections.

It was an exciting experience for all of us to prepare this issue, which is the first supplement to our Turkish Journal of Thoracic and Cardiovascular Surgery. In this issue, our experienced and expert colleagues present the most current information and experiences on tracheo-broncho-vascular sleeve resections. We believe that this number will be an important guide for young thoracic surgeons.

We would like to thank Prof. Ilgaz Doğusoy, MD the President of the Turkish Society of Thoracic Surgery, and Prof. Atilla Eroğlu, MD, the Editor of our journal, for their support in the preparation of this issue.

Wishing to contribute to our thoracic surgery community!

Mehmet Ali Bedirhan
Supplement Editor
